

Carley Wins Human Capital and Training Solutions (HCaTS) Contract

May 10, 2016, Orlando Florida - Carley Corporation has been awarded a prime contract under the multiple award, Indefinite-Delivery/Indefinite-Quantity contract by the U.S. Office of Personnel Management (OPM) in collaboration with the U.S. General Services Administration (GSA).

The purpose of the contract is to provide Human Capital and Training Solutions (HCaTS) to the federal government. Under this contract, Carley will be able to provide services in three areas:

1. Customized training and employee development services – under this service area, Carley will develop training as well as deliver courses and provide curriculum administration services. Carley will also provide employee coaching services.
2. Customized human capital strategy services – under this service area, Carley will develop Human Resource strategies, staff acquisition, organizational and performance management, compensation and separation management.
3. Customized organizational performance improvement services – under this service area, Carley will provide consultation services in order to achieve improved performance due to changes in how people are organized around business processes, changes to the processes themselves and the tools created to support those processes, as well as changes in management practices.

Services under this contract are available to all Federal Agencies. The contract is valued at over $3.5B over a 16.5 year period.

About Carley Corporation

Carley specializes in the analysis, design, development, and implementation of large-scale, complex blended training solutions where performance results are critical. Carley provides products and services within the full spectrum of training system requirements. This includes training devices, SCORM conformant Web-based training, instructor-led training, Advanced Electronic Classrooms, and PC-based simulations for technical skills and soft skills training. Carley Corporation is an ISO 9001:2008 certified woman-owned small business.

Media Contact

Vanessa Mack

Business Development

Phone: 407.377.1323

Fax: 407.895.3865

Email: vmack@carleycorp.com